OUR CAPABILITIES

STATE-OF-THE-ART PRODUCTION CENTRES BASED IN THE UK AND INDIA

Ongoing investment in our facilities, married with an unparalleled understanding of baking and bakery technology, ensures our customers benefit from the most sophisticated flatbread production capability in the Asia Pacific region. Bespoke production lines, in combination with traditional techniques, such as hand-shaping naans, ensure that the quality of our authentic products cannot be replicated. Cutting edge innovations in plant technology support our commitment to improving quality and productivity and allows us to meet the latest trends and consumer demand, whether that means developing exciting new flavour combinations, new sandwich carriers, or meal accompaniments.

CLEAN ROOM

We pack short and long-life breads in a controlled environment, providing quality products without the use of preservatives.

HIGH CARE

A chilled production unit conforming to the highest food hygiene and safety regulations enables the production of bread filled with a variety of ingredients, to suit the needs of our customers.

TORTILLA

Our high quality, soft and authentic tortilla wraps are produced on bespoke, state-of-the-art and fully automated production lines.

Tortillas can be prepared in sizes between 6" and 12", as well as a variety of flavours, which include plain, spinach, multigrain, whole wheat, grill marked and many more. Our tortillas are guaranteed to be a consistent size, shape, weight and colour to meet specifications. Tortilla wraps can be supplied ambient or frozen.

NAAN

Our naan bread is baked using traditional recipes with quality, natural ingredients in bespoke ovens that have been created to replicate the authentic tandoor clay oven baking process.

Our flexible large capacity production lines enable us to produce high quality naan breads to a variety of specifications. Available ambient or frozen in a range of flavours, shapes and sizes from 20g to 300g, including hand stretched.

PIZZA BASE

We can supply a range of Italian style hand crafted pizza bases. The pizza bases are flame baked using traditional recipes and ingredients to produce authentic high quality products.

Our highly automated, flexible production lines can produce pizza bases efficiently in high volumes enabling us to offer quality products at great value. The thickness of the pizza base can be varied to suit customer requirements.

We offer pizza bases with a variety of flavoured toppings including oregano, chilli flakes and pepper. Bases can be supplied ambient or frozen.

NACHOS & TACOS

Proudly bringing to India a slice of Mexico. Delectably delicious, fry and eat Nacho and Taco breads recreate Mexican magic right here in India. Only the finest ingredients are handpicked to make world class Nacho and Taco breads at our cutting edge production line.

Crispy and crunchy are the hallmarks of our Nacho and Taco breads exuding the true authentic taste of Mexico. Each and every piece is a delight to devour with uniform size, shape and texture.

CHAPATI

Chapati, the flatbread so unique to India's socio-cultural identity is one of our most premium offerings. Our truly authentic Chapatis are made using the finest of handpicked ingredients.

Each Chapati has that unmistakable homely and traditional flavor. To achieve that magical flavor and texture, finely ground flour of world class quality wheat is baked on a cast iron surface. It's as good as making Chapatis on a large scale using the traditional way - the time tested Indian Tava. Fresh2Go Chapatis perfectly complement a host of dishes and accentuate their taste. They can be produced in a variety of shapes and sizes, from 20g up to 300g, and can be supplied ambient or frozen.

PITA

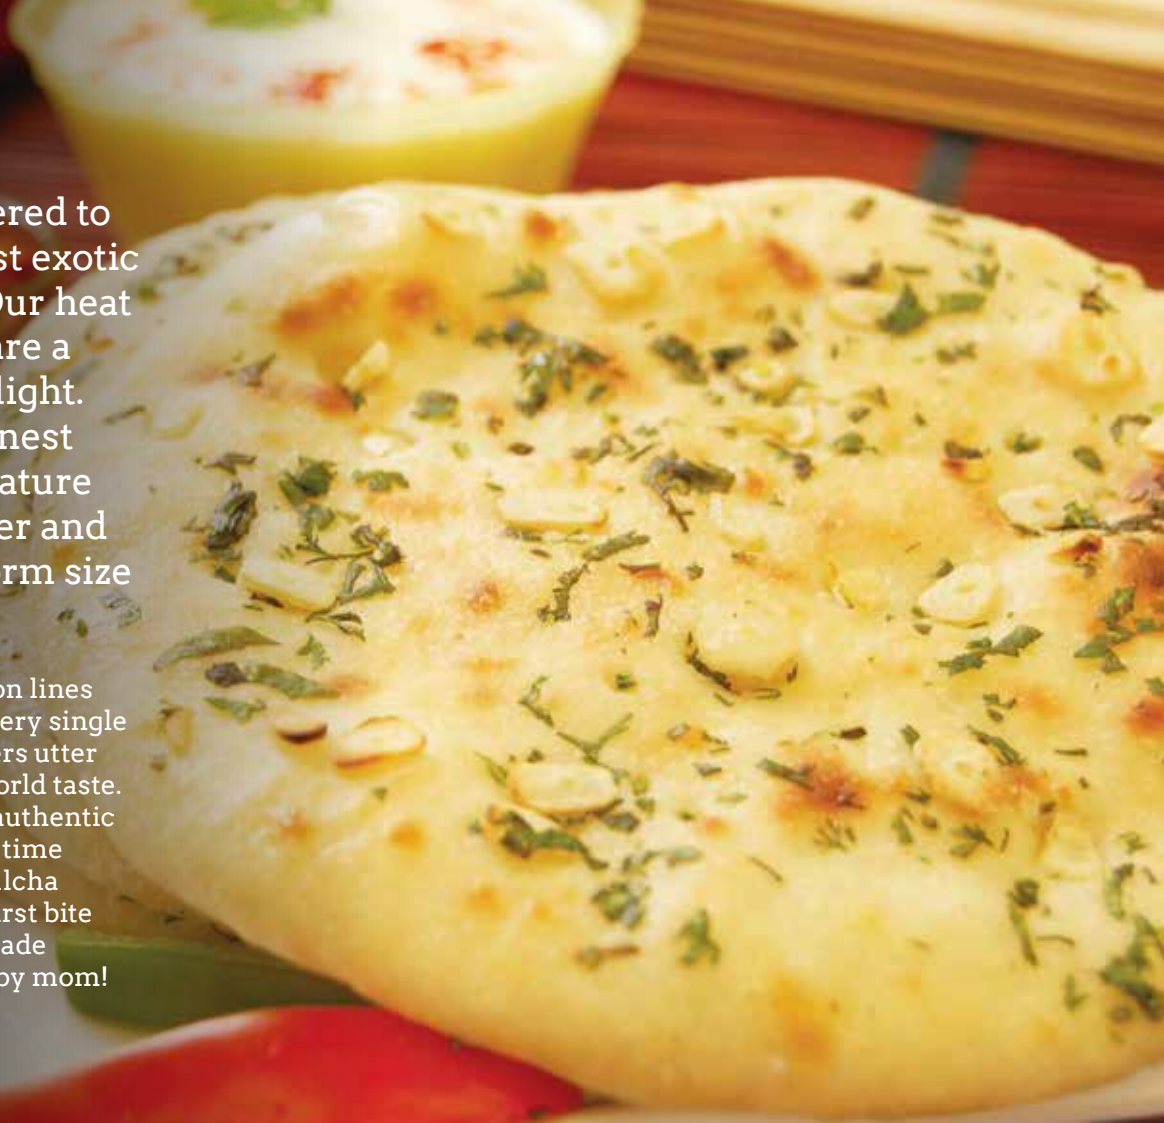

Our pitta, a versatile and soft, leavened flatbread, is prepared with care and baked at high temperatures.

Specialist production lines, designed and built in-house to achieve optimum results, ensure the layers of dough rise and separate to form perfect pockets ready for use as a sandwich carrier, kebab, or cut up to be used with sauces and dips. Pitta bread can be supplied ambient or frozen and can be produced in a variety of shapes and sizes between 20g and 300g.

KULCHA

Kulcha is considered to be one of the most exotic breads of India. Our heat and eat Kulchas are a connoisseur's delight. Made from the finest ingredients, Signature Kulchas are tender and tasty with a uniform size and shape.

Our futuristic production lines ensure that each and every single Signature Kulcha delivers utter delight and out of the world taste. Fresh 2 go Kulchas are authentic and made from age old, time tested recipes. Every Kulcha simply melts after the first bite very much like home made Kulchas lovingly made by mom!

POORI

Imagine golden hued, super soft and freshly fried Pooris with that unmistakable homemade taste. Fresh2Go signature Pooris are all that and more.

The fry and eat Pooris are made from the flour of finest, handpicked wheat grains. Made on cutting edge production lines, our Pooris exude a unique, enticing aroma that's simply irresistible. What more, all the Pooris come in a uniform size, shape, weight and texture with that Fresh2Go stamp of quality. Just unpack, heat, savor the aroma and feast!

PANCAKE

Light and fluffy scotch style pancakes are available in a variety of flavours.

They can be prepared in different sizes.

Scotch Pancakes

THEPLA

Think of Gujarati cuisine and what comes to mind right away is the yummy tasting Thepla. Signature international foods now brings to you truly authentic tasting Thepla with that typical Gujarati home kitchen flavor.

Made out of handpicked whole wheat grains and grams, our Theplas are infused with fenugreek leaves and fresh yoghurt making them totally healthy and utterly tasty. The easy to carry snacks can be savored both hot and cold. Every bite of our Thepla offers a taste of legendary Gujarati culinary magic.

LACCHA & MALABAR PARATHA

The smooth and soft dough is rolled and pinned, swirled and kneaded to a multi layered perfectly round rich flatbread called Laccha or Malabar Paratha, made with Ghee. The texture of the paratha is crispy, flakey and soft.

We offer both Lachha Paratha is a popular North Indian flat-bread & Malabar Paratha is a traditional recipe from Kerala.

We supply Paratha long life ambient or frozen that makes it very easy and convenient for our customers to consume.

FOLDED FLATBREAD

Signature International Foods is trusted and relied upon by customers to provide high quality flatbreads in all shapes, sizes, styles and flavours. We offer a wide range of flatbreads including tear and share and pocket breads.

Our investment in state-of-the-art production facilities means that we have the flexibility and versatility that our customers demand. Our passion for innovation and quality means that we can supply our customers exact requirements.
